ONE man had more reason than most to be proud of his one hour-20 minute finishing time at last year's London BUPA 10k run.

Nurse Neil Williamson, completed the run in the Richard House Hospice Giant Harry costume to raise awareness of the charity's flagship fundraising campaign, Harry's Million.

The campaign aims to raise £1m over the next two years to help fund nurses and play and care workers at the hospice. Neil is urging others to get involved and get running for the hospice, which was London's first when it was opened in 2000.

He said: "Last year's event was tough. It was a really warm day and, because I was in costume, I started at the back of the runners."

"But I was really proud of my time and I'd recommend it to anyone to do. I got so much support running round the course and it was a privilege to be able to represent Harry and Richard House."

Restrictions or suspension of services proposed as report reveals failings at Queen's

WARDS MAY BE CLOSED

EXCLUSIVE by Peter Henn

ROMFORD'S hospital's Accident & Emergency and Maternity departments could be shut down.

The Care Quality Commission (CQC) will be issuing a report on Queen's Hospital, Rom Valley Way, in April, having previously found the hospital had failed patients.

A spokesman said: "Ultimately, if they keep failing, we could end up restricting or even suspending services. It is the last resort, but it has happened to other hospitals, and it could happen here."

The development is more bad news for patients since Health Secretary Andrew Lansley approved plans to get rid of A&E and Maternity Services at King George Hospital, Barley Lane, Goodmayes, and transfer them to Queen's.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge NHS Hospitals Trust (BHR) must now comply with an action plan it has produced after new inspection showed failures.

The CQC said Queen's is still failing to meet targets of care, despite having been warned about its shortcomings in an October report.

It said both Accident & Emergency and Maternity were still giving patients poor care.

In a number of autumn inspections, it found, in A&E:

◆ patients exposed to an 'unnecessary' and increased risk of receiving poor care.

◆ relied too heavily on doctors from agencies.

◆ kept failing to meet targets of getting patients seen in time.

In Maternity, it:

◆ did not give women the required pain relief.

◆ gave inconsistent care.

◆ exposed mothers and babies to the risk of poor care.

◆ delayed some mothers being transferred to the antenatal ward to the labour ward.

The report said: "Staff felt there are still too many patients coming through the doors in A&E, as the hospital covers a large area."

It also said planned improvements were not able to have an effect because of the large number of patients. In Maternity, the CQC said there had been improvements, but not enough was being done to deal with high risk pregnancies.

The CQC's deputy director, Matthew Trainer, said: "Inspectors saw improvements in midwifery, particularly around the numbers and skills mix of staff. CQC remains concerned, however, that women are at increased risk of receiving poor care across maternity services."

The trust has been given 14 days to respond to the CQC with an action plan.

BHR chief executive, Averil Dongworth, said some ongoing improvements would take time to start working.

Increase in fines

TRANSPORT for London (TfL) is increasing the penalty charge for non-payment on its services from £50 to £80 from this weekend.

The increase in penalties will cover all of TfL's services in the capital, including London Under and Overground, London Buses, DLR and London Tramlink.

Transport for London said fare evasion cost around £63 million last year.

Shopkeeper thanks police after riots gang convicted

By Peter Henn

A SHOPKEEPER has thanked the police after they helped secure the convictions of a gang which tried to burgle his shop during last year's London riots.

Jeff Tucker, who runs the Rainham Goldmine jewellers, in Upminster Road South, Rainham, said the force had done well to see the nine men convicted.

He said: "The police have been brilliant, they were really helpful, and really supportive. "It's good to know these people are in jail."

Mr Tucker made his comments after the group were sentenced at Wood Green Crown Court last week.

The gang tried to smash their way into the shop in the early hours of Wednesday, August 10 last year, and only stopped when Mr Tucker's reinforced windows failed to break.

The gang, from Grays, drove off, and attacked and robbed two bystanders. However, they were soon caught by the police.

Mr Tucker said: "They thought there wouldn't be any police around, but there were more police around than at any other time last year."

"What I didn't realise until I was in court was that they were adults, fully grown men with beards - I thought it was just a bunch of kids."

Chinne Menakaya, 24, was sentenced to three years for attempted burglary. Collins Ilikhuoba, 24, was jailed for five years for attempted burglary and two robberies, and John Ajidahun, 22 was jailed for three years and three months for attempted burglary, while Esiri Sama, 26, and Boris Ladjouan, 21, were sentenced to three-and-a-half years for attempted burglary.

Michael Madubunyi, 28, received three years, Solomon Aloa, 18, got two years and Matthew Aboderin 19, got two years and six months for attempted burglary, while Toni Collins, 20, received a 12-month suspended sentence and was ordered to carry out 200 hours of unpaid work for attempted burglary.

Digging up the park's past

EXCITING: Wanstead Park is set to be cleared to by archeologists to reveal its past.

Picture by Mark Cleveland

investigative work.

Richard said: "We need to clear the scrub first over the next two weeks. Then we will use the radar."

"The City of London has given us permission, but we need to do all this now before nesting season so we don't harm the wildlife.

"We hope to see whether any masonry structures associated with the remains unearthed in 1715 have survived."

Fellow historian and Wanstead resident, Ralph Potter, said there was other firm evidence to suggest a Roman villa had once stood in Wanstead Park.

He said: "We have found painted wall plaster which was only put into villas of people of high status, flue tiles, which suggests underfloor heating and substantial roof tiles, which were all made locally. Roman coins have also been found from 350 AD."

Community day in Goresbrook Village

PEOPLE living in and around Goresbrook Village can attend a free Community Estates Day on Friday, March 2.

The event aims to bring together emergency services, council departments, and other groups so that residents can meet them and ask questions.

Barking and Dagenham Council said the day will provide participants the chance to get advice on crime prevention and personal safety.

Residents also can learn about the council's plans for estate renewal, which includes the redevelopment of Goresbrook Village Estate.

All three tower blocks, Dunmow, Bassett and Ingrave Houses, are being demolished to make way for new housing.

Residents are currently in the process of being moved out into new homes.

The Community Estates Day will be held from 2pm to 5.30pm.

The fire brigade will be there with a fire engine, and will be doing chip pan fire demonstrations.

Police air support are planning to attend with a helicopter.

Other groups will include the Territorial Army, Police maritime support unit, and children from Thames View Primary School who have designed their own burglary prevention posters.

POPULAR: Ron Jeffries at St Peter's Church.

Picture by Roy Tillett

St Peter's is 150

IT'S OFFICIAL - popular St Peter's Church, in Aldborough Hatch, is 150 years old.

Clergy, wardens, historians and volunteers have been busy trying to establish the exact date the church consecrated, but had extreme difficulty in doing so.

Historian Ron Jeffries said: "In our endeavours we contacted the Dioceses of London, St Albans and Chelmsford, the Essex Record Office and the ecclesiastical office at 10 Downing Street, all to no avail.

"Every reference book we have consulted refers to St Peters being built in 1863 but they all skilfully avoid any mention of the date of consecration."

The team at St Peters, in Aldborough Road North, went through every file, book and paper in the parish office, but drew a blank.

They had almost given up hope of ever finding the date of consecration.

Ron said: "My wife Yvonne suggested we look at the communion plate.

"There we found the date, March 6, 1862, it was right under our noses all the time!"

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:
1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "OT", etc, in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of an advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or / dates specified by the advertiser;
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where an advertisement is accepted for publication on a day / date or / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed, the advertiser will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for repudiation or allowances.
8. All goods advertising rates (except classified insertion and semi-display) are subject to and subject to the Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions will be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

Barking go bottom while Southend lose

Rugby Union

BARKING lost out 23-29 to Blackheath at the Goresbrook on Saturday to remain in relegation trouble in National One.

Played in filthy conditions, the visitors had enough in hand over Barking who put in a spirited display.

Stephen Hihetah scored Barking's solitary try in the first half, converted by Craig Ratford, but Blackheath went into half-time with a 8-12 advantage.

With the weather worsening, Blackheath extended their lead to 18 points, but Barking refused to throw in the towel, with Will Nelson and Tom Parker going over the line and Ratford kicking one conversion.

Blackheath hit back through Sam Windsor's penalty, and despite Ratford responding with three points, Barking could not put together a final attack and drop to the bottom.

Southend's inconsistent season continued, losing 18-8 to lowly Dings Crusaders in National Two South.

Sam Arnott scored Southend's solitary try on 62 minutes, with Simon Hoult kicking a penalty earlier in the half on a disappointing afternoon for Andy Holloway's side.

Westcliff showed their continued improvement in National League Three London & South East with a 17-25 victory at CS Rugby 1863. Bryn Hudson scored a single try in the wind and rain, with Ben McKeith kicking the conversion and six penalties.

In London One North, leaders Thurrock have a 12 point lead at the top thanks to their 53-7 win over lowly Rochford Hundred.

Eton Manor dropped down to sixth following their 5-10 loss to Bury St Edmunds, while there were victories for both Brentwood and Chingford. The former beat Hammersmith & Fulham 31-8 while the latter overcame North Walsham 24-8.

CHARGE: Thurrock flanker Charlie Russo on the way to scoring in the 53-7 victory over Rochford Hundred.

With Romford & Gidea Park in cup action, Basildon closed the gap to seven points in London Two North East after seeing off Chelmsford 22-5, but the leaders still have a game in hand.

Woodford won 14-17 at Hampstead, while Canvey Island stopped the rot with a 14-14 draw at fellow strugglers Old Streetonians.

Campion remain in relegation trouble in London Three North East, but narrowly lost out 5-0 to leaders Holt.

Upminster were 20-6 victors over Sudbury, South Woodham Ferrers triumphed 15-19 at Norwich while Wanstead went down 21-7 to Stowmarket.

In the London and South East Intermediate Cup Fourth Round, Romford & Gidea Park were left disappointed, losing 0-14 to Aylesford Bulls.

Ten men Irons record emphatic victory

West Ham United

WEST Ham United moved back to the top of the Championship table on Tuesday night with a convincing 4-1 win at Blackpool.

But it was not all plain sailing for Sam Allardyce's men, who played the majority of the second half with ten-men after Robert Green was sent off in the 53rd minute for a professional foul.

Without a recognised gloveman on the bench, on-loan Arsenal midfielder Henri Lansbury went between the posts and helped his side hold on to the three points.

The Irons took control of the game in a four minute spell on 28 minutes when James Tomkins headed in Mark Noble's free-kick and Nicky Maynard finished well after good play from Joey O'Brien.

Blackpool, themselves chasing a play-off spot, got a foothold into the match on the stroke of half-time when veteran striker Kevin Phillips headed in Alex Baptiste's cross.

The game looked to have swung in Blackpool's favour when Green brought down Roman Bednar and saw red.

With no named goalkeeper on the bench, Lansbury stepped in and was protected well by the West Ham defence.

Gary O'Neil's drive helped ease West Ham's nerves on 75 minutes, and although the hosts hit the post through Phillips, Ricardo Vaz Te capped off a great result for the Irons at the

Clarets edge closer to play-off spot while Fleet draw

Non League Football

CHELMSFORD City maintained their push for a play-off place in Blue Square South with a 3-1 victory over Havant & Waterlooville on Saturday.

Justin Miller gave the Clarets a 20th-minute lead, which was doubled by Ricky Modeste (67) and Cliff Akurang (89) in the second half. Scott Jones netted an injury time consolation for the visitors.

At the other end, bottom side Thurrock had to settle for a 1-1 draw. Ahmed Deen (45) gave Fleet a first-half lead but Manny Williams (63) denied them the three points.

Billerica Town maintained their five-point advantage at the top of Ryman League Premier thanks to their 2-0 victory at Canvey Island.

Rob Swaine headed in his 13th goal of the season on four minutes with Glenn Poole making sure with a 72nd-minute penalty.

Martin Tuohy's goal on 33 minutes helped second place AFC Hornchurch win 1-0 over Lewes.

In-form Concord Rangers won 2-0 at Carshalton Athletic to leave them ten points off a play-off place. Harry Elmes and Sherwin Stanley were on the scoresheet with Justyn Roberts sent off for the home side.

East Thurrock United avenged their 5-0 defeat at Margate earlier in the season with a 3-0 victory at Rookery Hill. Two goals in the last five minutes of the first half came from Sam Collins and Greg Cohen with Kris Newby completing the scoring with a 70th-minute penalty.

Aveley look doomed to relegation following a 5-2 loss at Wealdstone. Millers' Troy Powell-Quarry cancelled out Richard Jolly's opener, while Lee Chappell restored Stones' lead.

Spencer Harrison squared it on the hour mark, but it went downhill for the Millers with Kevin Mully putting through his own net, with Scott Fitzgerald and Jolly adding the fourth and fifth.

Great Wakering Rovers dropped to the bottom of Ryman League Division One North after losing 4-0 to leaders Leiston.

A double from Rhys Henry plus goals from Michael Brothers and Daniel Otleigh-Gooch made it a bad afternoon for Wakering, which was made worse by Ashley Hawkins' red card.

Ilford moved off the bottom after winning 3-2 over Waltham Abbey.

Adam Bolle (7) put Abbey ahead but Rob Carter equalised ten minutes before the break, then put Ilford ahead on 58 minutes. Loui Hazlewood (67) made it 3-1 with Ayrton Coley pulling a goal back late on.

Midtable Heybridge Swifts lost 3-1 at title chasers Enfield Town. Liam Hope (19) put the hosts ahead through the penalty spot, but Luke Callander looked to have earned a point for Swifts on 82 minutes. Town restored their lead a minute later through Michael Ewang and Hope made it 3-1.

Tilbury drew 1-1 with fellow play-off chasers Needham Market. Emiel Aiken (13) put the Dockers ahead while a red card for Duane Wright reduced the visitors to ten-men before half-time.

But Needham earned a point through Bradley Barber on the hour mark.

Grays Athletic remain fifth with a 5-1 win at Thamesmead Town. A double from Paul Olima plus goals from Nathan Gordon, Joao Carlos and Anthony Ryan made it a good afternoon for the Blues, with Ashley Probets netting a penalty after the interval for the hosts.

Brentwood Town won by the scoreline at home over Waltham Forest thanks to Ryan Doyle's double and efforts from Ryan Edgar, Danny Dafter and Robert Rees. Jamie Moore scored Forest's goal midway through the second half.

Romford suffered a 4-0 home defeat to Potters Bar Town through James Gershfield's brace, a Paul Kavanagh own goal and Rob Magwood.

Redbridge lost ground in the play-off chase following their 3-1 defeat at Maldon & Tiptree. Ryan Wade gave the Motormen a 20th minute lead, but Maldon fought back through Ryan Murray's own goal with Ross Wall and Ollie Berquez wrapping up the win.

Midweek results:- Blue Square South (20/2) Chelmsford City 3-2 Weston Super Mare; (21/2) Thurrock 0-1 Farnborough; Ryman League Division One North (21/2) Ware 0-2 Great Wakering Rovers; Redbridge 2-1 Harlow Town

Raiders edge closer to title

ROMFORD Raiders moved to within six wins of the English National League South One title after a hard-fought 5-2 defeat of the Invicta Dynamos at Rom Valley Way on Sunday.

Anthony Leone, Matt Turner, Danny Marshall, Shaun Wallis, and JJ McGrath scored for Raiders, while Callum Best and Andy Smith tallied for the visitors.

Raiders dictated much of the play despite being on the backend of a three-games-in-four-nights spell.

Thursday's 1-0 second-leg Essex Cup win over the Chelmsford Chieftains saw Raiders fall short of overturning a 2-5 first-leg deficit, before a short-benched Raiders fell 7-4 on the Isle of Wight, 11-7 on aggregate, in the Raiders Cup on Saturday.

Glen Jackson's 34-save shutout of the Chieftains marked the first time Raiders have ever blanked their Essex rivals in 110 meetings, and though cup success would have been a welcome addition to the South East Trophy win earlier this season, Sunday's league fixture with the Dynamos remained of utmost importance as Raiders chase the league title.

Saturday's trip to the Cardiff ENL Devils presents one of the run-ins tougher challenges, the first of two trips to the Welsh capital left for Raiders.

Dagenham & Redbridge

Daggers despair

DAGENHAM & Redbridge slumped to the bottom of League Two following their 5-0 home drubbing at the hands of high-flyers Cheltenham Town on Saturday.

The Robins, chasing an automatic promotion spot, got the ball rolling on 20 minutes through Like Summerfield's strike after Daggers failed to clear their lines, which was doubled two minutes later thanks to Steve Elliott's low strike.

Daggers' afternoon got worse before the break with keeper Chris Lewington sent-off for handled outside the area. Kaid Mohamed followed up the resulting free-kick to make it three.

With the damage done and playing with ten men, the second half was always going to be an uphill task for John Still's men, but poor defending did not help their cause.

James Spencer took advantage with a fourth just after the hour mark, with Michael Spillane compounding Daggers' afternoon but turning Mohamed's cross into his own net 20 minutes from time.

Still said: "If you're playing well enough I believe that you end up getting what you deserve. We were beaten by a better team but we contributed to our downfall."

Romford Ravens

Ravens victorious

A DEPLETED Ravens squad overcame injury and sickness to triumph 0-24 at Chesham on Saturday.

In wet and blustery conditions, Ravens took the lead with Vicky Sullivan powering over to score.

Despite losing Kelly Drake and Anna Castley through injury, Ravens used the wind in the second half to pin Chesham in their own half.

Tors Parish left defenders routed to the spot for a try while Jade Hagger added to her two conversions with a trademark blind side sneak.

Sullivan rounded off the scoring with a powerful run over the line.
